90th Anniversary Dinner and Auction: A Smashing Success!

By John Cockle, Chair of the Congregational Board

Saturday evening, Mar. 6, was a first in several respects for Country Club Christian Church. It was the first of several events planned to celebrate the 90th anniversary of our congregation; it was the first dinner/auction fundraising event for our church; and it was the first church function we have had at Mildale Farm in Edgerton, KS.

The event was planned as a fund-raiser to reduce the budget deficit and help fund the current year's ministries. As you know, the large shortfall in income this year had already resulted in reductions in compensation for the staff and other cost-cutting measures. The goal for the dinner/auction event was to raise $30,000 after expenses.

Those who participated in the event found it to be something much more. It was a magical evening – great weather, a beautiful facility, love-decorations, tasteful live music, delicious food and fabulous auction items. But more than that, it was an opportunity to meet or get better acquainted with other members that we might seldom see at church.

Oh yes, the event was a financial success as well! Final receipts are being calculated.

The idea for a special fund-raising event came out of a series of discussions last summer and fall about ways in which we might be able to address the large budget deficit. After considering a number of options, we decided on a dinner and auction. In order to generate interest in the event, I suggested that we tie it in with the 90th Anniversary as one of several anniversary celebrations. A few members of our congregation perceived that this event was the only 90th Anniversary celebration and felt excluded because they could not justify paying the $125 ticket price. I deeply regret that anyone felt excluded. Other events are planned. Watch for details.

The success of the event on Mar. 6 is truly amazing when you consider that we had never done something like this before. Add the fact that we had the first meeting to discuss the event on Nov. 3, just four months prior to the event. Then throw in some serious winter weather, the church email being down for weeks, and other obstacles too numerous to mention.

Lesley Holt, the chair of the event, did a fabulous job of organizing a committee and leading

John Cockle, Lesley Holt and Glen Miles them to success. She would tell you that the success of the event is attributable to the time, talents and endless energy of the committee members who worked on the event.

Our congregation is truly blessed to have such talented and caring people who can accomplish the impossible. The theme for our 90th Anniversary says it well: "Founded in Faith, Growing in Grace."

Special Easter Offering Will Help with Basic Needs in Kansas City and Africa

To help with basic needs for persons, both locally and in Africa, consider donating to the 2010 special Easter Offering. This year's Easter offering will benefit the local Metropolitan Lutheran Ministry and the Water Wells of Machaze in Africa.

MLM offers services to low-income and homeless individuals, including clothing, rental and utility assistance, and medical necessities. Recently, MLM started a Saturday breakfast program in Kansas City's midtown area. Your support will provide food and supplies to hundreds of children and families in our community.

In Machaze in Mozambique, the scarcity of water is a very serious problem and heavily effects women and girls who walk long distances and stand in line for hours to get one bucket of water. Water Wells of Machaze, a ministry of Global Ministries in partnership with the United Church of Christ in Mozambique, involves the construction of two water wells that are estimated to benefit about 200 families in Machaze. Global Ministries is a common witness of the Division of Overseas Ministries, Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) and Wider Church Ministries, United Church of Christ.

We ask for your prayerful consideration and generous support for these groups. Drop your contribution in the offering plate on Sunday mornings. If you would like to give via credit card, please contact Sandy Eisenman at 816-333-4917.

God Sees Us Through

by Dr. R. Glen Miles

“Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow...”

Philip Keller is a shepherd. He is also a writer and his book, A Shepherd Looks at Psalm 23, has a mysterious power behind it. He notes that in the life of faith we often desire to rise above the din and the noise of everyday life, to live on the mountain tops.

Sometimes we think that Christian faith works like some sort of airlifting experience. We think that God’s helicopter is going to swoop in and rescue us from the pain and sadness and loneliness of this life.

However, the promise of Psalm 23 invites us to live through these moments so that we might move toward the heights of new life. The ancient poet promises that God is there, even in the shadowy valley.

You and I know that every mountain has its valleys. Some of them are deep and filled with scars. Some are treacherous and frightening. The way to the top of the mountain is often filled with dangerous cliffs and difficult paths. In life it is the same. The only way to higher ground comes by climbing.

Keller points out that any shepherd knows the truth of this idea. A shepherd leads the flock persistently through the paths that lead to the top. He takes them through the valley.

Keller points out that this is exactly what the text says. “Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death.” The psalm does not say, “I die there, or stop there,” but rather “I walk through.” Throughout this one journey we call life we are promised the presence of God.

This revelation then is one that points out that we live in both the already and the not yet. As we go through whatever life has to offer, even the dark shadows, the deep valleys, even when we mess things up all on our own, in all of life’s circumstances God is present with us.

New Program to Focus on KCMO Schools

Coming in the Fall of 2010 will be an opportunity for everyone at Country Club Christian Church to support children in the Kansas City, Missouri School District. The Inclusion Task Force of Country Club Christian Church has chosen this local effort as a ministry in which all can participate and one by which our church can help address one of our community's greatest needs. The program will have one objective: "To help children in the Kansas City, Missouri School District achieve at higher academic levels."

The Inclusion Task Force recognizes that this is an ambitious goal and if not well-planned and focused will not be effective. The Inclusion Task Force, formed by the Congregational Board in the Fall of 2009, has been studying, discussing and planning its approach. In the coming months you will hear more and hopefully get excited about the opportunity to be involved. The task force is currently considering the possibility of initially partnering with one and possibly two schools. The Task Force is looking toward a congregation-wide involvement to make this program a success.

The task force members are George Asante, Greg Bates, Andrea Bough, Deborah Johnson, Joanne Kane, Marjorie Jump, Katie Lamb, Don McFarland, Howard Petrie, Jarene and Lee Stanford. If you would like to join the committee, contact Greg Bates, chair.

Joy Amidst Tears

by Brandon Winstead, Director of High School Ministries

It was 12:30 a.m. and the house was quiet when Marlo's phone rang. It was Chuck, our good friend from the Kansas City Urban Youth Center (KCUYC). It startled Marlo and me, and we immediately wondered why he was calling so late. At first, we figured he had accidentally pressed our number so neither one of us answered the phone. However, when he rang again, we found out it was no accidental call.

In fact, Chuck was calling to let us know that Jamar, a teenager from the KCUYC, had been shot and killed. We were floored. We had just been with Jamar four days previously at church and now he was gone. As the thought sank in, the tears began to fall. Marlo and I cried as we drove to his house and as we sat with his family until three in the morning. The tears continued to drop over the coming days as I prayed, sat through his funeral, and as our youth ministry held a vigil for Jamar and for all those that loved him.

Our youth with youth from the Kansas City Urban Youth Center

Even still—when I think about that night or the days following his death—the tears will sometimes fall. Yet, when this happens, God reminds me that Jamar brought much laughter and happiness to my life and to the youth here at church. Because of this, I am challenged to remember that even in the midst of my pain and loss, God's grace and joy are ever present in the smiles and laughter of children. Amen!

Shaped in the Waters

by Catherine Stark-Corn, Minister to Children, Youth and Families

Palm Sunday is just around the corner and it will be a busy Sunday morning! Along with festive worship and a palm parade, our congregation will celebrate the baptisms of this year's Pastors' Class. This special day invites us all to be participants whether we are in a white robe making our way into the baptistery or witnessing from the pews in the sanctuary. Fifteen youth have been studying, discussing and preparing for this day with the help of their Faith Mentors, the ministers and the Director of Middle School Ministries. So, too, preparations have been going on with many of our younger children who will be present for the baptisms. We provide context for what they will witness on Palm Sunday by exploring baptism through a story and then a little field trip to see the baptistery firsthand.

Along with focusing on our youth to be baptized, it is appropriate during Lent to reflect upon our own baptismal journey. Do you remember your baptism? Or recall being told about your baptism? Has your baptism become more meaningful over time? When you are present for another's baptism, does it help renew your baptismal vows? Although the act itself may have occurred in the past, as children of God we can claim our baptism as part of our present faith. We ARE baptized, not were baptized.

Marilyn Brown Oden in her book Wilderness Wanderings asserts, "Baptism is the first step in a lifelong journey of returning to God with all our heart." This sacred, living act claims us as God's beloved and marks us for a life of faithfulness. When we are physically washed over by the living waters, symbolically the old self dies and the new self emerges – we rise to walk as a child of God.

Brown Oden thinks of baptism as an outward act and sign.

*Our baptism takes us out into ministry – in giving of ourselves, full life comes to us.
Our baptism takes us out into a new covenant –
a sacred unity of creature with creation and Creator.
Our new covenant written on our hearts, does not change God – it changes our innermost being.*

As we approach this holy celebration in the life of our congregation I encourage you to visit anew your baptism and how this sacred act shapes you as a child of God.
