Pathways to Learning – City of God

May 6, 13, 20

The Bible mentions “the city” more than 850 times. This three-part series will look at poverty as a key challenge faced in our city today and how we can faithfully address poverty to build up greater Kansas City. The series includes local experts on poverty as well as key metro leaders whose comprehensive approaches offer opportunity for all to get involved.

May 6: The Face of Poverty

- Laura Bauer, Kansas City Star reporter for the series on childhood hunger
- Sister Berta Sailer, Co-Founder of Operation Breakthrough

- Dave Schmidt, a Brookside father whose family consciously set out on a social exercise to survive on a poverty-level budget for a year

May 13: Our Community Response to Poverty

E. Frank Ellis, Chairperson and CEO, Swope Community Enterprises and Board Chair, Greater Kansas City Chamber of Commerce will cover the comprehensive approaches he is leading to address poverty in our metropolitan area.

May 20: Kansas City – A Metro Approach to Poverty

Mayor Sly James will speak on initiatives in Kansas City and across the metro to build up greater Kansas City and stem poverty.

Sundays 9:55-10:55 a.m., Social Hall

Grace At Work Crews Assist Community

On Sat., Mar. 31, 200 members and friends of Country Club Christian Church participated in Grace At Work. Spanning the city in 12 groups, volunteers dismantled a tree house, filled Easter baskets, cleaned the sanctuary, painted rooms, spread mulch, organized clothing racks and distributed food. Mark your calendars now for the fall Grace At Work on Sat., Sept. 15.

Time to Update our Church Directory

Lifetouch Studios will be here on Fri., Apr. 27, and Sat., Apr. 28, to take your photo for a directory supplement. If your photo is not included in the current directory or you'd like to have your photo retaken, you are encouraged to sign up for a photo session. Complimentary supplements including photos and contact information will be available for anyone who has a current directory. Anyone who has their photo taken for the directory supplement will receive a complimentary 8x10 photo.

Sign up for an appointment on the church website at <http://cccckc.org/stay-informed.html>. Don't miss this opportunity to learn new faces in the church and give others an opportunity to learn yours!

Imagine Christian Community Camp

Imagine going on vacation but never having to find a restaurant for dinner. Imagine hiking all day and then sitting down to a hot home-cooked meal that someone prepared for you! Imagine getting to fish all day while your spouse gets to do what he or she wants to do all day. Imagine the laughter and joy of your friends as they gather on the deck that overlooks an afternoon rainbow gracing the snow capped mountains. You don't have to keep imagining. You can experience all of this. Just sign up for Christian Community Camp in Estes Park, CO. The dates: July 28-Aug. 4, 2012.

Accommodations: We stay in two private lodges at the YMCA of the Rockies. Each family enjoys a private room with a private bath. In addition, a bunk room is available for single adults.

Cost: $1,400 for a private room or $225 for a bunk. Each participant also pays $75 for food/activities for the week.

Activities: Enjoy your own schedule each day.

Choose a group hike, horseback riding, golf, fishing, craft shop, raft trip, boating, biking, scenic drive to the Continental divide; swimming, miniature golf, tennis, archery, reading on the porch overlooking the mountain and much more. In the evening you may join the group for a hayride, square dance or go-cart rides.

For more information: Call or email Jane Fletcher or Carla Aday at the church at 816-333-4917 or carlaa@cccckc.org or janef@cccckc.org. A complete brochure is available on the church website at www.ccccckc.org.

After Easter

by Dr. R. Glen Miles

Easter asks us to name what we worry about and bring it to God. Easter asks us to face the things that we are afraid of the most (like death and taxes!) and place them on a cross shaped altar. Easter says “forget about being in control and give yourself to God.” Scott Black Johnston, a preacher in New York City, says that Easter helps us see “that the most solitary thing we can do—die is not something that we do alone.”

The question we must ask after Easter is this: Are we brave enough to look death in the face so that we can get on to the task of living in the here and now?

Easter, finally, is all about laughter. It is the reversal of fortune, it is the surprise to end all surprises. It is about God having the last laugh over death. In the Eastern Orthodox Church they celebrate a day they call “hilariter.” It means hilarity or merriment. They tell jokes. They fall on their faces laughing. We don’t laugh on Good Friday. That is not a funny day. But after Easter we are expected to laugh! That reminds me of a story.

A man and his dog walk into an entertainment manager’s office. “My dog talks,” the man says. “Show me,” the manager directs. The man asks the dog, “What is on top of a house?” “Rrrroof.” “What does sandpaper feel like?” “Rrrrough.” “Who was the best baseball player of all time?” “Rrrruth.” The manager yells, “That’s it, get out of here. He doesn’t talk. You’re wasting my time!” As the man and the dog are walking away the dog looks up at his master and asks, “Dimaggio?”<sup>1</sup>

That is an Easter story. We don’t expect the dog to talk. We don’t go to a graveyard to find a corpse regenerating.

Do you want proof of Easter? Sorry but you won’t find that here. If we can prove Easter then faith is unimportant. We don’t prove Easter. It’s like a good joke; either you get it or you don’t.

Easter is the ultimate reversal of fortune. We don’t come to church to understand Easter. We come, as one preacher said, “to stand under Easter until we are blessed!”

Christ is risen. He is risen indeed! Grace and peace to you,

Glen

Community Camp KC Wednesday evenings in June

We are making plans for our third annual summer family fellowship gatherings on Wednesday evenings in June (6, 13, 20, 27). Join us for dinner and lots of fun activities. Each Wednesday night will feature a different fun activity including Magic Bob, inflatables, water games and a petting zoo. Join us from 6:00-8:00 p.m. This time of intergenerational fellowship is inspired by the annual Community Camp in Estes Park, but closer to home!

Easter Offering Will Help Empower Women

Thank you for your generous contributions to this year's Easter Offering. As of Thurs., Apr. 12, more than $20,000 has been collected to help empower women. Recipients are "Por un Futuro Mejor" (For a better future), sponsored by El Centro which gives female survivors of domestic violence instruction in financial literacy and economic stability, and provides microenterprise loans as a springboard to starting small businesses, and a women's microcredit and savings project with The Community of Disciples of Christ in Congo Democratic Republic of Congo, which offers loans for women wanting to start a business or invest in another small business. Easter Offerings are still being received, so if you would still like to participate, please send your check, marked "Easter Offering" to the church office or drop it in the offering tray on Sunday.

Virginia Reed Food Drive on April 15

On Sun., Apr. 15, please bring your nonperishable food items for our collection for local food pantries that serve the homeless and hungry. Vans will be in the parking lot to receive your food or it can be placed in the barrels located at the east and north doors. We also purchase food in case lots for the pantries, so cash donations are welcome. Please mark your donation "Food Drive."

Follow Us on Facebook

Are you a fan of Country Club Christian Church on Facebook? The church's Facebook page includes photos, information and an option for you to leave messages. You can sign up to be a follower if you have a Facebook account. If you don't have an account, you can create a free one. The church already has more than 500 people following us on Facebook. Join the fun. Just go to www.facebook.com.

The Well Book Corner

Do you need books for your children or grandchildren? Do you need a Bible to use in your Bible study? Would you like to read a book mentioned in a sermon or a minister's column in The Christian? Then visit The Well, our book and gift store on the ground floor of the church

The Well also features gifts for everyone, including wonderful Fair Trade items from around the world. Shoppers will find jewelry, scarves, CDs and handmade items from Nicaragua. The proceeds go to Week of Compassion, which provides emergency disaster relief to peoples around the world.

Or you can shop at home through Amazon to benefit Week of Compassion. If you use the Amazon search function on The Well's web page, a percentage of the purchase price is directed to Week of Compassion. Go to www.ccckc.org and click The Well in the top right-hand corner, then follow the instructions.

The Well is open on Sunday mornings from 9:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., and Wednesdays from 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.

Coming Home

by Lauren Weinhold, Director of Church Growth

After the festivities at church on Easter Sunday, my husband and I headed home to cross the next thing off our agenda for the day...nap. Fashionably donning sweatpants and old t-shirts, we quieted the dogs with chew bones and turned off our cell phones. We were anxiously awaiting a few hours of uninterrupted solace. Then, as if to affirm God's sense of humor, the doorbell rang. I bolted out of bed and scurried down the stairs quietly praying that whoever had come to our door might have given up and moved on by the time I got there.

I opened the door and a well-dressed man with silver hair introduced himself. "Hi, my name is Harry and I lived in this house for nearly 20 years. My family and I live in Florida now, but I'm back in Kansas City on business, so I thought I'd just stop by and see the ol' place. Would you mind if I wandered around the outside?"

I quickly invited him in and gave him the 30-second tour of the house he remembered so fondly. He pointed out improvements that he and his wife had made and complimented our efforts to tackle a few aesthetic projects. After nearly an hour of stories about the neighborhood, in-depth discussions of roofing and plumbing, and a few glasses of iced tea, Harry apologized for occupying our afternoon and made his way towards his rental car.

As he was leaving, he commented that he'd have to bring his wife by the house the next time he passed through town. "She'd love to see how happy the house is," he said. "You're welcome home anytime," I said as I shook his hand. We exchanged information and I extended an open invitation to dinner the next time he and Carol came in town. "Thanks for making me feel so at home on Easter Sunday," he said. With a tear in his eye, he added, "This was a great resurrection."

My hope is that the nearly 250 guests who joined us for worship earlier that day had an experience similar to Harry's. I pray they felt at home. I pray they want to come back. I pray they experienced some kind of a resurrection. Thanks to each of you who extended a hand, shared a smile or learned someone's name.

Lauren

Helzberg Organ Recital

Hear the new Helzberg Organ in Helzberg Hall at the Kaufman Center for the Performing Arts on Tues., Apr. 24, at 7:00 p.m. Our own David Diebold, Minister of Music, will be performing along with Charles Miller, Minister for Music at the National City Christian Church in Washington, DC. Proceeds will benefit the National City Christian Church Foundation to help repair earthquake damage to the structure and organ. Both Mr. Miller and Rev. Diebold have planned an "audience friendly" program of music to showcase the new Casavant Organ in Helzberg Hall. This will be the second public performance on the new instrument. Tickets are $21.00 through the Kauffman Center ticket office or for just $15.00 if you purchase them in the Parlor on Sun., Apr. 15 and 22.

Eager to Share

by Carla Aday, Senior Associate Minister

Can you imagine being hungry? No, I mean really hungry? Not like, hungry for a favorite food or restaurant or candy. But just hungry. Hungry for enough to eat. Hungry to find food for your children or elderly parents. Hungry enough to wait two hours in line to receive a box of day old bakery goods and donated fresh produce.

On a beautiful spring Saturday morning, my husband, Dave, my son, Connor, and I showed up in a parking lot at a church in south Kansas City. We had been sent there as part of the Grace at Work team organized by our church. Waiting there in the front parking lot were more than 100 cars, filled with families waiting to receive food. Busily working in the lower parking lot behind the church was a team of two dozen folks unloading fresh carrots, potatoes, lettuce and bakery items from a Harvesters truck. Once all the food was unloaded, we sorted it into piles. Then an assembly line formed to fill boxes of fresh food for each of the waiting families.

My favorite part of the assembly process was the bakery items. Several pre-teen boys and a few dads worked this area diligently. They first made a huge pile of all the breads – English muffins, bagels, dinner rolls, sour dough loaves. Then off to the side, they carefully stacked the more delicate dessert items – iced cakes, monster cookies, apple pies, chocolate iced brownies. Once the boxes were filled with produce, these boys and men topped off each box with soft bread and a dessert item. “Someone is going to be so happy to receive this delicious cake,” one boy announced. “Oh, wow, look at these great big cookies,” another declared. They smiled, salivated and smacked their own lips as they enthusiastically placed the treats on the top of each box.

I laughed and smiled at their eagerness to share what they so clearly loved themselves. And I thought that surely this was how God gives to each of us – eagerly, enthusiastically. God wants us to taste the goodness. God wants us to know the joy. And so with delight, God places before us a banquet table of life filled with bread and wine. Sometimes we don’t notice that behind the gift is a giver eager to share the true delight with all of us who are truly hungry for life.

Children and Families Fountains of Faith Sunday School

Wisdom & Prophets: Into the World

Throughout the year the 1st–5th graders have explored the role of the prophet. This final rotation of the cycle will help the children review some of the key experiences and explore prophets from our contemporary society and our own faith community. Through cooking, a scavenger hunt, storytelling and more children will have opportunities to connect the Biblical prophets to their lives today. See you from 9:55 -10:55 a.m. on the second floor children’s wing.

Club Kids (3rd-5th graders)

Sun., Apr. 15 – 5:00-7:00 p.m.

Apr. 21-22 – Omaha Overnight (no Sunday evening session)

Sun., Apr. 29 – 5:00-7:00 p.m.

Moms Group

Join other mothers in volunteering at Rose Brooks, Tues., Apr. 24 from 9:30-11:15 a.m. It’s a great way to get out and connect with other moms while helping break the cycle of domestic violence. We volunteer the fourth Tuesday of each month. Please contact Karla Herrington at karlah@cccckc.org for more information.

Vacation Bible School

July 23-27, 9:00 a.m.-Noon

Make plans to attend our annual summer VBS. This year the theme is SonSurf Beach Bash. We will learn about various parts of Jesus’ life and how we can seek to live in God’s way. For ages 4 years old-5th grade (completed in May 2012). Save the dates!
